GWS receives SEK 3 million from Almi

GWS Production AB in Lund has been granted a Business Loan from Almi amounting to SEK 3 million.

The loan can be seen as part of a growing interest in GWS business and unique service to provide security for corporate employees, wherever they are.

Last week it became clear that Humle Småbolagsfond has invested SEK 5.2 million in Global Warning System (GWS) and now the company is receiving SEK 3 million from Almi.

In total, GWS has received SEK 8.2 million in one week, this money gives the company even greater power and ability to continue the successful development.

About GWS Production AB and Safeture

GWS, Global Warning System, was founded in 2009, triggered by the experience of the global SARS epidemic, the 2004 Indian Ocean tsunami and the Mumbai terror attacks. The company offers a mobile device based, personal security service Safeture, in order to protect the traveller by real-time tracking and providing valuable real-time information about disasters and other threats that could impact on the traveller. The system is provided to both businesses – Safeture Pro, and to private individuals – Safeture.

The GWS share is listed on NASDAQ First North Stockholm. Sedermera Fondkommission is the Certified Adviser.
